ASCCP Committee on International Education and Humanitarian Outreach

Lisa Flowers MD
ASCCP Committee on International Education and Humanitarian Outreach Chair
Professor, Emory University School of Medicine
Department of Gynecology and Obstetrics
Atlanta, Georgia, USA
Disclosures

- No financial relationships or conflict of interest to disclose
Objectives

Discuss the mission of the International Education and Humanitarian Outreach Committee

Review activities of the committee during 2016-2017

Discuss future activities for the committee and engagement by committee members

Discuss the future vision of the Humanitarian Committee
International Education and Humanitarian Outreach Committee

Purpose:
Advance ASCCP’s educational efforts to low-and middle-income countries, as well as, international recruitment and engagement.
International Education and Humanitarian Outreach Committee

Charges:
Collaborate and participate with related ob-gyn and colposcopy societies in the developing world.
Develop educational materials to support these educational initiatives.
Work with the Executive Director to identify and submit grant requests to assist in the funding of international educational initiatives.
Utilize course evaluations and other data to develop/modify curriculum, identify gaps and plan for future programs.
International Education and Humanitarian Outreach Committee

Approach:
The Committee builds on ASCCP’s successful history of educating women’s healthcare providers with comprehensive and advanced colposcopy courses, Educate the Educators programs, and hands-on mentorships.
International Education and Humanitarian Outreach Committee – Two Tiered Strategy

• Comprehensive and advanced colposcopy courses offered in collaboration with colposcopy and ob/gyn societies in countries with established screening programs.

• Basic education in cervical cancer prevention, role of HPV, colposcopy, and treatment offered in collaboration with NGOs, medical schools, and ministries of health in low and middle resource countries.
  • Include both didactic, interactive case sessions, and hands-on clinical training
International Education and Humanitarian Outreach Committee  History: 2005-2015

- Lima and Cuzco, Peru  2005
- Managua, Nicaragua  2009
- San Salvador, El Salvador  2010
- Nairobi, Kenya  2010, 2011
- Tashkent, Uzbekistan  2010, 2015
- La Paz, Bolivia  2010
- Accra, Ghana  2011, 2012
- Musanze, Rwanda  2012
- Gabarone, Botswana  2013, 2014
- Makelle, Ethiopia  2014
- Medellin, Colombia  2014
- Panama City, Panama  2015
International Education and Humanitarian Outreach Committee: 2016-2017

Committee Members
Chair
Lisa Flowers MD (2016 - 2017)

Incoming Co-chair
Joseph S. Ng, MD (2016 - 2017)

Members at Large
Carole Campbell ARNP,CNM,DNP,MSN (2016 - 2017)
Chengquan Zhao Professor of Pathology (2016 - 2017)
Coralie Pederson CNP (2016 - 2017)

Joseph Bachicha MD (2016 - 2017)
Lisa Lepine MD (2016 - 2017)
Meredith Alston MD (2016 - 2017)
Ramon Cestero MD, CPI (2016 - 2017)
Robert Hilgers MD (2016 - 2017)
Sherry Carter NP, PhD (2016 - 2017)
Wenxin Zheng MD (2016 - 2017)

Ex-Officio
Anna-Barbara Moscicki MD (2016 - 2017)
Colleen Stockdale MD,MSc (2016 - 2017)
International Education and Humanitarian Outreach Committee: 2016-2017 Activities

June
- Costa Rica

October
- Mexico
- Cuba

November
- The Gambia
- Cancun

February
- Dubai

May
- China
ASCCP in Costa Rica: Advanced Colposcopy Course

Host Sponsor: Congreso Nacional de Ginecologia y Obstetricia de Costa Rica
Dates: June 13-14, 2017
Faculty: Alan G. Waxman, MD, Lisa Flowers, MD
Accomplishments
70 colposcopists participated in the didactic session
ASCCP in Gambia: Phase I

Host Sponsor: Gambia Ministry of Health and Social Welfare, SOS Children’s Village International and the Edward Francis Small Teaching Hospital of the University of the Gambia

Dates: November 1-11, 2016

Faculty: Alan G. Waxman, MD, Meggan Zsemlye, MD, and Jody Stonehocker, MD. A non-ASCCP sponsored co-faculty was Dr. James Faherty of the University of Otago, Dunedin School of Medicine, New Zealand.

Accomplishments

Didactic Program: 51 providers attended the program (physicians, nurse midwives, nurses, midwives)

Hands on training: 7 physicians participated in this portion of the course.

Pre and post test was administered: 19% improvement in the mean score between pretest and post-test
ASCCP in Gambia: Phase 1
ASCCP in Gambia: Phase 1
ASCPC in Cancun: Congreso Latinoamericano de Patología en el Tracto Genital Inferior y Colposcopia-Educate the Educator

Host Sponsor: Congreso Latinoamericano de Patología en el Tracto Genital Inferior y Colposcopia-Educate Congreso Latinoamericano de Patología en el Tracto Genital Inferior y Colposcopia-Educate

Dates: November 15-18, 2016

Faculty: Francisco García, MD and Jose Jeronimo, MD

Accomplishments

250 gynecologists participated in the didactic session.
ASCCP in Dubai: Comprehensive Colposcopy Course

Host Sponsor: AECS Med
Dates: February 2-4, 2017
Faculty: Lisa Flowers, MD, Joseph S. Ng, MD
Accomplishments
24 gynecologists participated in the didactic session and hands on.
ASCCP in Dubai: Comprehensive Colposcopy Course
ASCCP in Cuba: XVI Congreso Nacional de la Sociedad Cubana de Obstetricia y Ginecología

Host Sponsor: ASCCP, Spirit Foundation, XVI Congreso de la Sociedad Cubana de Obstetricia y Ginecologia

Dates: October 3-7, 2016

Faculty: Naomi Jay, RN NP, PhD, Stephen Goldstone, MD, Lisa Flowers, MD, Alan G. Waxman, MD, Anna-Barbara Moscicki MD, Marc Troup Goodman, Ph.D.

Accomplishments

Over 70 participants attended the ETE

45 gynecologists attended the Pre-Congress session on Cervical adenocarcinoma

145 gynecologist attended the lower genital tract session (Patología del TGI y colposcopia)

14 Cuban gynecologists and a colorectal surgeon received didactic training on anoscopy skills with 2 gynecologists receiving hands on training in anoscopy
ASCCP in Cuba: XVI Congreso Nacional de la Sociedad Cubana de Obstetricia y Ginecología—Educate the Educator
ASCCP in Cuba: XVI Congreso Nacional de la Sociedad Cubana de Obstetricia y Ginecología—Pre-congress on Cervical Adenocarcinoma
Host Sponsor: Colegio de Colposcopía y Patología Genital Inferior de Occidente A.C. Dates: October 7-8, 2016

Faculty: Alan Waxman, Ramon Cestero, Teresa Darragh

Accomplishments

100 colposcopists from Mexico and 13 Latin American countries attended.

The course entailed lectures, Q&A, and interactive case presentations.
ASCCP and CSCCP Partnership: ASCCP Advanced Colposcopy Course and CSCCP Meeting

Host Sponsor: 3th Conference of Chinese Society for Colposcopy and Cervical Pathology

Dates: May 18-21, 2017 Beijing, China

Participants: Micheal Gold M.D., EJ Mayeux M.D., Chengquan Zhao M.D., Wenxin Zheng M.D., Lisa Lepine M.D., Lisa Flowers M.D.
Future Projects for the International Education and Humanitarian Outreach Committee

2. Dubai: October 2017 Advanced Colposcopy Course; 3 colposcopists

3. Gambia: Phase II Reinforcing building capacity and infrastructure development November 2017; 3 or 4 ASCCP Faculty
Guidelines for Prioritizing Projects

Justification of the educational need within the country for cervical cancer prevention and demonstration of the country’s capacity for sustainability.

Demonstration that the country is prioritizing cervical cancer and is attempting to develop a strategic approach to reducing rates in the country.

Proposals need to communicate how the project will document outcome measures.
Guidelines for Prioritizing Projects

Training will impact populations in the country that are at the greatest need for screening and treatment.

Train the trainer approach with didactic sessions and hands on experience.

Projects that engage several stakeholders in the country: academic institutions and hospitals, national organizations, ministry of health, NGO’s and develop long-term relationships.
Thank you